Dear Judge Marchant:

It is my understanding that our Defendants' response to Plaintiff's most recent motion to compel, Documents No. 156 and No. 157, is due today. Due to the volume of Plaintiff's pleadings, the necessity to respond in detail to each of the items listed within the Motions, and the volume of other cases that I am responsible for, I would ask the Court to enlarge the deadline to respond to Documents No. 156 and No. 157 until December 19, 2005. I do not believe that this extension will delay any trial in this matter. If the Court needs a formal motion to enlarge regarding this response, I will be happy to have one prepared and filed this evening.

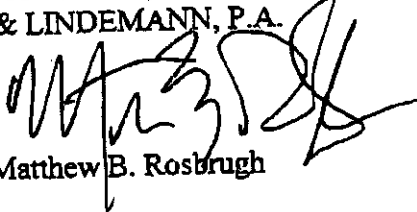

Please advise my assistant if this is satisfactory as I will be out of town today preparing for and conducting depositions in another case.
